January 1, 2007

Article I – Name

The name of this organization is "Bear Creek Bible Church" (BCBC).

Article II – Statement of Faith

Bear Creek Bible Church believes:

1. In one God eternally existing in three persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Deut. 6:4; Matt. 28:19; II Cor. 13:14).
2. In the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as verbally inspired of God, inerrant in the original writings, and of supreme and final authority in all matters of life and faith (II Tim. 3:16,17; II Pet. 1:20,21).
3. That God the Son became flesh in the person of Jesus Christ, who was begotten by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary, and is God and man (Luke 1:35; John 1:1,2,14).
4. That man was created in the image and likeness of God, but that in Adam's sin the race fell, inherited a sin nature, and became alienated from God. Therefore, man is totally depraved and unable to remedy his fallen condition (Gen. 1:26,27; Rom. 5:12,19; Eph. 2:1-3,12).
5. That Jesus died for our sins as a substitutionary sacrifice; and that all who believe in Him are justified by grace through faith, apart from works of any kind (Rom. 3:22-25,28; Eph. 1:7; 2:8,9; I Pet. 1:3-5; 2:24).
6. In the resurrection of the crucified body of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His ascension into Heaven, and in His present life there for us, as High Priest, Intercessor and Advocate. (I Cor. 15:1-8; Acts 1:9-11; Rom. 8:34; Heb. 4:14; I John 2:1).
7. That all who have been justified are kept eternally secure by the power of God (John 6:37-40; 10:27-30; Rom. 8:1,35-39; I Cor. 1:8,9; I Pet. 1:5).
8. That Satan, a fallen angel, is a person and author of sin and the instigator of the angelic and the subsequent human rebellion against God. He is the declared enemy of God and man and he will be eternally punished in the Lake of Fire (Gen. 3:14,15; Job 1:6,7; Isa. 14:12-17; Matt. 4:2-11; 25:41; Rev. 20:10).
9. That Christ ordained water baptism and the observance of the Lord's Supper until He returns (Matt. 28:19; I Cor. 11:20-34).
10. That it is the obligation of every believer to witness by life and by work and to seek to proclaim the Gospel to all the world; and it is the responsibility of all believers to remember the work of the Lord in prayer and to support it with their means as the Lord has prospered them; and that every believer has a spiritual gift(s) which should be used to edify the Body of Christ (Acts 1:8; Rom. 12:1,2; 13:14; I Cor. 12:14; 16:2; II Cor. 8:11; 8:14; 9:7; Eph. 4:11-16).

11. That the prophecy of the rapture of the Church will be fulfilled (I Thes. 4:13-18; I Cor. 15:51,52; John 14:1-3).
12. That Jesus Christ will return to establish an earthly kingdom for 1000 years (Isa. 11:1-12; Rev. 20:1-6).

Article III – Church Activities

BCBC emphasizes the spreading of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through outreach ministries, service ministries, evangelistic efforts, and the support of missionary activities. BCBC will strive to prepare each believer to fulfill God's purpose and plan for his or her life. The church will administer the ordinances of Baptism and Communion, and will teach and preach the Word of God (the Holy Bible) through Sunday school classes, worship services, youth ministries, small-group Bible studies, and fellowship activities. The church will also conduct baby dedications, marriages, and funerals.

Following the completion of the orientation, individuals desiring to join BCBC will meet with the Pastor or someone appointed by the Elder Board to publicly profess their faith in Jesus Christ and their belief in the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, eternally secure salvation by faith alone, the physical return of Christ, and the authority and inerrancy of Scripture.

The Statement of Faith (Article II). Should any ordained or licensed individual change his doctrinal position, his ordination or license will be withdrawn.

Article VII – Church Discipline

Discipline is intended to admonish and restore an erring brother or sister to repentance. It is not to be administered as punishment, but is rather a mandate of scripture that has three purposes: to restore and reconcile an erring believer (Matt. 18:15, II Cor. 2:5-8), to maintain church purity (I Cor. 5:6-7), and to serve as a deterrent from sin (I Tim. 5:20). Specific steps, to be delivered in a "spirit of gentleness" (Gal. 6:1), include:

1. A believer will approach the erring person in confidence in an effort to achieve repentance (Matt. 18:15; I Cor. 5:6-7; II Thess. 3:6,14-15; I Tim. 5:19-20; Titus 3:10).
2. If the previous step fails, the believer and one or two additional witnesses will confidentially confront the erring person (Deut. 19:15; Matt. 18:16).
3. If previous steps fail to result in repentance the matter must be presented by the Elders at a special meeting limited to church members, still as an appeal for repentance. The erring member will have an opportunity to address the other church members relative to the matter (Matt. 18:17a; II Cor. 5:3-5; 6:1-5).
4. As a final measure, if all else has failed, the erring member is placed on public corrective exclusion where anyone in the church body, except for immediate family and contractual business arrangements, is forbidden fellowship with him or her (Matthew 18:17b).

Article VIII – Dissolution

No part of the net earnings of this corporation will ever inure to the benefit of any donor, member, director, or officer of the corporation or any private individual and no donor, member, director or officer of the corporation or any private individual will be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets. Upon dissolution, any assets or debts of the corporation must be distributed to one or more organizations recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as one organized exclusively for Christian beliefs and purposes similar to those outlined in Articles II and III of these By-Laws or a similar church willing to accept the assets or debts.

Article IX – Amendments to the By-Laws

Any church member can propose changes to the By-Laws by submitting the proposal in writing to the Elder Board for consideration. Proposed changes approved by the Elder Board, or an amendment presented by ten or more voting members, must be presented to the congregation at least two weeks prior to a business meeting. A proposed change must be approved by two-thirds of the members casting ballots.
